Travel costs at own expense.. I will be sourcing accommodation options - the only official expense will be the dinner

Some of us will be travelling in vehicles, so we should be able to transport those around who have flown in for the gathering.. we will know closer to the date who needs transport...including airport transfers..

I am pursuing Polo shirts for the occasion, they will come at a cost, and I will endeavour to keep that as low as possible, but produce good quality at the same time... Keep you all posted on that one..

We will need to confirm numbers for the dinner closer to the date, however the Ward Room can only cater for up to 100.
